Reverends Getting Impatient and Regin-ning to Threaten. Some of the reverends are getting to be wotoclaiming freedom to the slaves. Nothing will ust them but a proclamation of emancipation so impatient and violent have some of them b one, that they are launching the thunderbolt the Almighty on the head of the President to his failure to wipe out the "hoary abomination. The Rev. Elias Bowen, D. D., a prominent an cell known Methodist clergyman, is very bolt o his denunciations, and threatens the Presider ith deposition if he fails to come up boldly he work of Emaucipation. In an article which he ventilistes through the columns of the North ern Independent, published by Rev. Wm. Hos-eer, at Anburn, New York, he thus expresses himself:

PRESIDENT LINCOLN ARRAIGNED. "Look at the position occupied by the gov-What has been done by him, or his cabinet offiers, to quell a rebellion which threatens out national existence the least success ! Who will oint us to the first blow they have struck at lavery, its well known cause! On the conrary, what have they not done to foster, or at east protect and keep in countenance, that neary abomination, and that, too, in open defituce of the judgments of heaven, which every ody knows are falling upon us for this my sin?

PRESIDENT LINCOLN INSTRUCTED. "What would we have the President do ! We would just have him do his duty, which is a plain as the nose on your face. We would have tim issue a proclamation of freedom to all the laves in the land, and thereby strike at the root of the rebellion, which he is in vain attemption to put down by carefully guarding the accurred institution from which it spung. Civil war it ipon us: and the liberties, nay, the very exist nce of our republic is trembling in the scale, a the effect of slavery. And having passed Hi Excellency—Abraham Lincoln—at the head of the government to take care of its interests, a treating. The letter was written after the re- demand of him, in the name and by virtue of ou thring movement of the forces under Genera sovereign will, that he shall abolish by proclams son, and the forces we have placed at his dispe sal for this purpose, an institution by which the nierests are put in awful jeopardy. THE PRESIDENT THREATENED. We can but raise the note of warning-ay admonition also-to the President himse We would inform him that the government of uese United States is ours-the people's-and or his. We have an individual interest in it as cell as he. And we will not see our liberties and our existence barrered away by a man who es the position he occupies to our suffrage, s the damuable institution of slavery, without a struggle. If he will not regard the rights and I of his constituent -- the rights and will o Northern as well as of Southern sovereign States-we shall not be long in availing of IN HIS PLACE WHO WILL DO IT." The editor of the Northern Independent hope that the President may soon find himself "crowe ed to a point where he has no choice and can d othing but acquiesce in the necessities of the case," and assures us that "when the call for emunicipation thus presses upon him, he wilone his proclamation as readily as he did to r inforce Sumter." Upon that we suppose the exerend confleman's assurances are worth inst much, and no more, as any other person' he den't knew anything about it. They show lowever, the faraticism of these reverends, and NOVELTY WORKS last they look more to the freedom of the slave than to the restoration of the Union as it was.
